

*Friday 12 August | 9am – 11:30am
Deloitte, Parramatta*

9:00am Networking

9:30am The Dialogue's Policy Agenda

Adam Leto | Executive Director, Western Sydney Leadership Dialogue

9:45am GWS Demography & Health

Lauren Nicholls | Senior Manager, Policy & Research, Western Sydney Leadership Dialogue

Who are the residents of Greater Western Sydney, how are they different to those who live in other parts of Sydney, and what are some of the patterns that have emerged over the past decade? What are the long-term health conditions that are most prevalent in Greater Western Sydney?

10:15am GWS Housing & Way of Life

Luke Turner | Director, Policy & Analysis, Western Sydney Leadership Dialogue

What does the latest health data tell us about the region's response to COVID-19 and vaccination uptake? How much does the average Greater Western Sydney household earn? How will rising cost-of-living pressures, combined with a downturn in the property market, impact the way residents live, work and spend?

10:45am Review

Helen Hamilton-James | Managing Partner – Western Sydney, Deloitte

What are the stand-out socio-economic trends for GWS coming out of the 2021 Census, and what we might expect to see over the next five years?

11:00am Closing Remarks

Brett Towers | Director, Marketing & Partnerships, Western Sydney Leadership Dialogue